

Speech-Language Pathologist Job Description

Park Century School was founded in 1968 as a not-for-profit independent day school committed to meeting the academic needs of students who learn differently. Park Century serves students in grades K - 8 grades living in the South Bay to the San Fernando and throughout the greater Los Angeles area. Park Century's mission is to empower students with learning differences to reach their academic and personal potential. Students flourish within our individualized, evidence-based educational programming and supportive school environment.

Park Century School is founded on the principle of honoring the diversity of human and educational experiences. We seek applicants who recognize that all children can learn when provided with explicit instruction targeted at meeting students' individual needs. Park Century School seeks candidates committed to creating a diverse, equitable, and inclusive teaching and learning community. We value multiple perspectives and do not discriminate based on race, culture, religion, age, national origin, disability status, genetics, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state, or local laws.

Position Summary

An opportunity is available for a Speech-Language Pathologist with 1-2 years of experience within a K-8 school setting located in Culver City, CA. This role is ideal for professionals seeking valuable experience in educational speech-language pathology and aiming to make a meaningful impact on students' communication development.

(Clinical Fellowship year candidate considered)

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct speech and language assessments for students in kindergarten through 8th grade.
- Develop and implement individualized treatment plans to support communication goals.
- Collaborate with teachers, parents, and other educational professionals to integrate speech therapy into the classroom environment.

- Maintain thorough and accurate documentation of student progress and treatment outcomes.
- Participate in school staffing meetings and contribute to goal-setting.
- Collaborate with a speech and language team.

Qualifications:

Required

- 2 years of experience working as a Speech and Language Pathologist.
- 2 years of experience working in a school environment.
- Completion of a graduate degree in Speech-Language Pathology.
- ASHA Certified.
- Valid California Speech-Language Pathology license, or in the process of obtaining one.
- Strong understanding of pediatric speech and language disorders.
- Effective communication and interpersonal skills for working with diverse student populations and school staff.

Preferred

- 3-5 years of experience working as a Speech and Language Pathologist.
- 3-5 years of experience working in educational settings preferred.

Hourly Pay: $35–$40/hr, depending on experience and qualification.

This position offers an excellent opportunity to develop clinical skills while supporting students' educational and communicative success. It provides hands-on experience in a collaborative school environment, allowing for professional growth and mentorship throughout the CFY.

Physical Demands and Work Environment

An employee must meet the physical demands and work environment characteristics described here to perform the job's essential functions successfully. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform essential functions.

Physical demands: While performing the duties of this job, the employee is required to sit in on meetings and work on a computer for long periods. The employee is occasionally required to walk, reach with hands and arms, balance, stoop, talk, and hear. The employee must occasionally lift and move up to 15 pounds. Specific vision abilities required by the job include close vision, distance vision, and the ability to adjust focus.

Equal Opportunity Statement

Park Century School is an equal opportunity employer. We celebrate diversity and are committed to creating an inclusive environment free of discrimination and harassment for all employees. Park Century School does not discriminate in employment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy and gender identity), national origin, political affiliation, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, genetic information, age, membership in an employee organization, retaliation, parental status, military service, or other non-merit factor. All employment is decided on the basis of qualifications, merit, and business need.